

Cetrimide Antiseptic Cream – 30g Tub

Specification Sheet

Product Description:

Cetrimide Antiseptic Cream is a topical treatment formulated to prevent and treat skin infections in minor cuts, scrapes, burns, and abrasions. The cream provides a protective barrier over wounds while delivering fast-acting antimicrobial action.

Packaged in a convenient 30g tub, this cream is a valuable addition to any first aid kit, offering easy and hygienic application for wound care at home, in the workplace, or in clinical settings.

Specifications:

Specification	Detail
Active Ingredient	Cetrimide
Form	Topical Antiseptic Cream
Volume	30g
Use Case	Minor wound infection prevention
Colour	White/off-white cream
Application	Apply directly to affected area
Shelf Life	Up to 3 years (unopened)
Packaging Type	Plastic tub with pop lid

Contents:

- 1 x 30g Tub – Cetrimide Antiseptic Cream
- Label with directions for external use

Applications:

- Minor cuts, scrapes, and abrasions
- First and second-degree burns
- Post-operative wound care
- Skin irritation and surface infections
- First aid kits for home, office, and travel

Features and Benefits:

- Kills bacteria to prevent infection
- Easy-to-apply cream formula
- Soothes and protects damaged skin
- Compact 30g tub – ideal for mobile use
- Trusted wound care option for first aid kits

Packaging:

- Sealed 30g plastic tub
- Sold in individual units or bulk packs
- Label includes batch number and expiry date